Tuscia University of Viterbo International Semester in Legal Studies Law Program Autumn Semester (October-December 2019)

The Law Program at Tuscia University welcomes foreign and Italian students to attend the courses (held in English) in the context of the International Semester in Legal Studies. Attendance of these courses is open to Erasmus, Erasmus + and other foreign students, both graduate and undergraduate, who are visiting at Tuscia University on temporary basis. Italian students enrolled in the Law Program (Corso di laurea magistrale in Giurisprudenza) may also attend the courses of the International Semester to obtain the credits related to the “alternative formative activities” (8 cfu or 4 cfu).
In the Autumn Semester (October-December 2019) of the current academic year, 3 courses (mentioned below) will be offered.

In order to enroll in the International Semester, students should send an e-mail to alessandro.bufalini@unitus.it no later than 25 October 2019.
