Statements

By sending this application, I request to participate to the summer school “Food landscapes and ecosystems to design sustainable future - Innovations, societal transformations and regenerative communities” to be held in Pieve Tesino, Italy on 12th – 25th June 2022.

I have read and understood the conditions (application requirement and selection criteria) and costs of the summer school as reported on the event institutional website link

I am aware that University of Tuscia reserves the right to cancel the event in case of restrictions imposed at the local, national of international level, because of the pandemic situation.

I attach the following documents to this application:

- Certificate of enrolment of bachelor or master
- Transcript of records with name of the degree, passed exam list (CFU detailed for Italians) and grades until application submission
- English language certificate or a self-certification stating the level of spoken and written English
- Motivational letter written in English (max 2,500 characters including spaces)
- Front-back copy of a valid identity document

I give my consent to University of Tuscia to process my personal data to assess my application and to contact me in the context of the selection of summer school's participants and of the organisation of the event. I am aware that all personal data will be treated according to the EU GDPR n. 2016/679. I retain the right to withdraw my consent at any time, provided that in this case I will be excluded from the selection process.
