Paolo Corona is Postdoctoral Research Fellow in Medieval and Modern Legal History at the University of Florence. His research interests mostly head towards legal historicism (especially within the Romantic age), the development of systematic legal science throughout the 19th and early 20th centuries, and constitutional doctrines in the 19th century. He continually collaborates in the activities of the "Centro di Studi Paolo Grossi per la storia del pensiero giuridico moderno" and is contributor and Editorial assistant in the international review "Quaderni fiorentini per la storia del pensiero giuridico moderno".

Guest Lecturer: Dr. Paolo
Corona

The lecture is part of the course:
