

Green and Pink Pathways: Sustainability and Social Inclusion Strategies in Italy, Vietnam, and Argentina

Transnational Perspectives on Sustainable and Inclusive Development within TNE GPS Education

January 23, 2026 h 11:00 - 13:00

Round table

Coordinator
Prof. Sonia Melchiorre

TNE GPS - Facilitators: Ilaria Selvaggini, Giorgio Scavino

Participating Visiting Faculty:

- Mi Linh Nguyen, Lecturer, Hanoi University (Vietnam)
Research focus: Hospitality and Tourism
- Xuan Quynh Hoang, Lecturer, Hanoi University (Vietnam)
Research focus: Accounting and Sustainability Reporting
- Diem Phan, Tourism Lecturer, Hanoi University (Vietnam)
Research focus: Tourism Studies
- Pablo Pizzuolo, Lecturer, Universidad Nacional de Cuyo (Argentina)
- Claudio Javier Muñoz, Lecturer, Universidad Nacional de Cuyo (Argentina)

Venue: Aula Magna - Rettorato

Via Santa Maria in Gradi, 4, Viterbo

Exploring how sustainability ("green") and social inclusion, gender equality, and equity ("pink") intersect across higher education, tourism, and socio-economic development. This TNE GPS Education dialogue brings together academic perspectives and applied research experiences from Italy, Vietnam, and Argentina, fostering transnational cooperation and knowledge exchange.