Co-funded by the European Union

GREENO2 Project – Final Meeting Info Pack

8 - 9 April 2026 – Viterbo, Italy
Hosted by University of Tuscia (UNITUS)

Final Public Conference – Agenda

Green Roofs in Higher Education: Innovation, Sustainability and Student Engagement

8 April 2026
University of Tuscia – Viterbo, Italy

The conference aims to present the main results of the GREENO2 project, highlighting the role of green roofs as tools for environmental education, sustainability, and well-being in higher education, while actively engaging students in shaping future perspectives.

14:00 – Opening Session – by University of Tuscia (project coordinator)

- Welcome by University of Tuscia (Project Coordinator)
- Institutional greetings
- Introduction to the GREENO2 project: context, objectives, and European dimension

14:20 – GREENO2: From Vision to Implementation – by Panteion University

- Project objectives and approach
- Overview of activities (Work Packages, MOOCs, digital tools, events)
- Target groups and transnational collaboration

14:40 – Presentation of Key Results

- GREENO2 Curriculum and training modules – by Xenios Polis
- GREENO2 Handbook / Guide – by University of Cadiz
- MOOC on EduOpen and UCA Platform and e-learning environment – by University of Tuscia and University of Cadiz
- GREENO2 AI-PANC and mobile App-– GRIPEN EUROPE

15:20 – Impact and European Added Value – By The Higher School of Social and Media Culture in Toruń (ASKIM)

- Dissemination and outreach activities
- Engagement of students, academics, and professionals
- Multilingual results and international cooperation
- Contribution to sustainability and environmental awareness

15:40 – 16:10 | Coffee Break

16:10 – Interactive Session: "What Do Students Think About Green Roofs?" – University of Tuscia and University of Cadiz

- Participatory activity involving students
- Collection of ideas, perceptions, and expectations
- Interactive tools (live polling / post-its / group discussion)
- Reflection on how student feedback can inform future policies and practices

16:50 – From Feedback to Future Actions – TSNUK and LIM

- Presentation of key insights emerging from the interactive session
- Discussion on the role of students in shaping sustainable campuses
- Links with future initiatives and project sustainability

17:20 – Closing Remarks

- Summary of key messages
- Valorisation of project results
- Invitation to use and replicate GREENO2 tools and outputs

17:40 – End of Conference

Informal Networking